2. Every shareholder has the right to suggest amendments and supplements to draft resolutions, which are covered by the agenda of General Meeting, by the time of closing the discussion over the point on the agenda referring to the draft resolution with which the suggestion is concerned.
3. The suggestions referred to above under 2, along with short justification should be submitted to the hands of the Chairman of General Meeting in writing, separately for each draft resolution, giving the name and surname (business name) of the shareholder or his attorney-in-fact (other representative).

§ 15

The Chairman of General Meeting has the right to give the floor to invited guests and experts.

§ 16

1. In procedural matters the Chairman of General Meeting may give the floor to speakers without paying attention to the sequence. A motion in a procedural matter may be put forward by every person entitled to take part in General Meeting.
2. As motions in procedural matters shall be treated motions relating to the manner of discussing and voting, and in particular to:
  - 1) limitation, adjourning or closing the discussion,
  - 2) closing the list of candidates for Chairman of General Meeting,
  - 3) closing the list of speakers,
  - 4) limitation of speech duration,
  - 5) manner of directing the session,
  - 6) ordering a recess in the session,
  - 7) sequence in which the motions are to be adopted.
3. Discussion over the motions in procedural matters should be opened directly after the motions have been put forward.
4. The Chairman of General Meeting may finish the discussion and order voting on the motion in the procedural matter.

VI. Adoption of Resolutions

§ 17

Subject to situations set forth in the Code of Commercial Partnerships and Companies and in the Company's Articles of Association resolutions of the General Meeting shall be adopted by a simple majority of votes cast.

§ 18

1. The shareholder may not vote, either in person or by a proxy holder (other representative) on resolutions relating to his liability to the Company, for whatever reasons, including granting him vote of acceptance, releasing him from an obligation towards the Company or dispute between him and the Company.
2. The shareholder who votes as a proxy holder of other person on resolutions, referred to in clause 1 shall vote in accordance with voting instructions issued by the shareholder.

§ 19

1. Subject to sec. 2 voting shall be open.
2. Voting by secret ballot shall be ordered:
  - 1) during election of and on motions for revoking members of Company authorities or receivers,
  - 2) on motions for holding liable members of Company authorities or receivers,
  - 3) in personal matters,
  - 4) if at least one of the shareholders present or represented at the General Meeting demands so.

§ 20

1. After closing discussion on each point on the agenda and before the voting is commenced the Chairman of General Meeting announces which motions have been put forward and determines the sequence in which they shall be voted on. Voting on motions is made in the sequence in which the motions have been put forward.
2. Voting may be made with the help of cards for voting or a computer system for casting and counting the votes which ensures that the quantity of votes cast conforms to the number of held shares as well as eliminates, if voting is by secret ballot, the possibility to identify how individual shareholders have voted.
3. Before voting is commenced the Chairman of General Meeting or a person designated by him shall provide detailed instructions relating to the manner in which voting will be conducted.

VII. Election of Supervisory Board Members

§ 21

1. Candidates for Supervisory Board members shall be put forward to the minutes orally along with a justification.
2. The suggested candidate for a Supervisory Board member shall be entered onto a list after giving a statement to the minutes, in writing or orally, that he consents to candidate.
3. The list of suggested candidates for Supervisory Board members shall be drawn up by the Chairman of General Meeting in an alphabetical order. The list is deemed as closed upon having been announced.

§ 22

1. Supervisory Board members are elected by voting for each candidate in turn in an alphabetical order.
2. The candidates who have received the largest simple majority of votes cast shall be deemed as elected for Supervisory Board members, bearing in mind the number of Supervisory Board members as stipulated by the Company's Articles of Association.

VIII. Election of Supervisory Board Members by Voting in Separate Groups

§ 23

1. Upon the motion of shareholders representing at least one fifth of the share capital the Supervisory Board should be elected on the forthcoming General Meeting by voting in separate groups, even if the Company's Articles of Association provide for another manner of appointing the Supervisory Board.
2. The motion for electing Supervisory Board members by voting in separate groups shall be submitted to the Management Board in writing within a time limit which enables placing on the agenda of the General Meeting the election of Supervisory Board members by voting in separate groups.

3. The election of Supervisory Board members by voting in separate groups shall be provided for in the agenda presented in the announcement that the General Meeting is to be convened.
4. Groups of shareholders shall be created for the purpose of electing Supervisory Board members. It is allowed to create so many groups how many places are available to be filled in the Supervisory Board. The part of Supervisory Board which is appointed by an entity (entities) provided for in a separate statutory act shall not be taken into account.
5. The minimum of shares required in order to create a group is determined by dividing the number of shares represented on the General Meeting by the number of places in the Supervisory Board which remain to be filled.
6. A group of shareholders has the right to elect so many Supervisory Board members how many times the number of shares represented by the group exceeds the minimum referred to in clause 5.
7. The surplus number of shares in a given group which exceeds the minimum, or the multiplicity of the minimum, referred to in clause 5 does not entitle the group to elect one more Supervisory Board member.
8. A simple majority of votes cast shall decide about the election of a Supervisory Board member within one group.
9. A shareholder may belong to only one voting group.
10. A resolution about electing Supervisory Board member(s) by a given group shall be recorded by a notary.

IX. Final Provisions

§ 24

1. After all points on the agenda have been addressed the Chairman of General Meeting shall announce that the Meeting is closed.
2. To the matters not regulated by these Regulations the provisions of the Code of Commercial Partnerships and Companies and the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association shall apply.
